

When it comes to housing, little things shouldn't make a difference.

If you have children or are pregnant and a landlord refuses to rent to you, requires a higher security deposit, limits the use of facilities, or says you can only live in certain areas of a housing complex... that could be discrimination. And housing discrimination because of familial status is against the law.

If you believe you may be a victim of housing discrimination, contact HUD or your local Fair Housing Center:
